(b) the transfer of registered ownership of securities from a person to a depository or from a depository to a beneficial owner shall not be liable to duty.

*Explanation.*ð For the purposes of this section, the expression ñbeneficial ownershipò shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996).ô.

15. Insertion of new Part AA.—In Chapter II of the principal Act, after Part A relating to óOf the liability of instruments to dutyô, the following Part shall be inserted, namely:ð

ñAA.ï ï Of the liability of instruments of transaction in stock exchanges and depositories to duty

9A. Instruments chargeable with duty for transactions in stock exchanges and depositories.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,ð

(a) when the sale of any securities, whether delivery based or otherwise, is made through a stock exchange, the stamp-duty on each such sale in the clearance list shall be collected on behalf of the State Government by the stock exchange or a clearing corporation authorised by it, from its buyer on the market value of such securities at the time of settlement of transactions in securities of such buyer, in such manner as the Central Government may, by rules, provide ;

(b) when any transfer of securities for a consideration, whether delivery based or otherwise, is made by a depository otherwise than on the basis of any transaction referred to in clause (a), the stamp-duty on such transfer shall be collected on behalf of the State Government by the depository from the transferor of such securities on the consideration amount specified therein, in such manner as the Central Government may, by rules, provide ;

(c) when pursuant to issue of securities, any creation or change in the records of a depository is made, the stamp-duty on the allotment list shall be collected on behalf of the State Government by the depository from the issuer of securities on the total market value of the securities as contained in such list and in such manner as the Central Government may, by rules, provide.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the instruments referred to in sub-section (1) shall be chargeable with duty as provided therein at the rate specified in Schedule I and such instruments need not be stamped.

(3) From the date of commencement of this Part, no stamp-duty shall be charged or collected by the State Government on any note or memorandum or any other document, electronic or otherwise, associated with the transactions mentioned in sub-section (1).

(4) The stock exchange or a clearing corporation authorised by it or the depository, as the case may be, shall, within three weeks of the end of each month and in accordance with the rules made in this behalf by the Central Government, in consultation with the State Government, transfer the stamp-duty collected under this section to the State Government where the residence of the buyer is located and in case the buyer is located outside India, to the State Government having the registered office of the trading member or broker of such buyer and in case where there is no such trading member of the buyer, to the State Government having the registered office of the participant :

Provided that before such transfer, the stock exchange or the clearing corporation authorised by it or the depository shall be entitled to deduct such percentage of stamp-duty towards facilitation charges as may be specified in such rules.

Explanation.–ï The term ñparticipantò shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in clause (g) of section 2 of the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996).

(5) Every stock exchange or the clearing corporation authorised by it and depository shall submit to the Government details of the transactions referred to in sub-section (1) in such manner as the Central Government may, by rules, provide.

9B. Instruments chargeable with duty for transactions otherwise than through stock exchanges and depositories. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,ï ï

(a) when any issue of securities is made by an issuer otherwise than through a stock exchange or depository, the stamp-duty on each such issue shall be payable by the issuer, at the place where its registered office is located, on the total market value of the securities so issued at the rate specified in Schedule-I ;

(b) when any sale or transfer or re-issue of securities for consideration is made otherwise than through a stock exchange or depository, the stamp-duty on each such sale or transfer or reissue shall be payable by the seller or transferor or issuer, as the case may be, on the consideration amount specified in such instrument at the rate specified in Schedule-I.

(b) submits a document or makes a declaration which is false or which such person knows or believes to be false, shall be punishable with fine of one lakh rupees for each day during which such failure continues or one crore rupees, whichever is lessò.

19. Insertion of new section 73A.—After section 73 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:ï ï ñ73A. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of Part AA of Chapter II.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the Central Government may make rules for all or any of the following matters, namely:ï ï

(a) the manner of collection of stamp-duty on behalf of the State Government by the stock exchange or the clearing corporation authorised by it, from its buyer under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 9A ;

(b) the manner of collection of stamp-duty on behalf of the State Government by the depository from the transferor under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 9A ;

(c) the manner of collection of stamp-duty on behalf of the State Government by the depository from the issuer under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 9A ;

(d) the manner of transfer of stamp-duty to the State Government under sub-section (4) of section 9A ;

(e) any other matter which has to be, or may be, provided by rules.ò.

20. Amendment of section 76.—In section 76 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :ï ï

ñ(2A) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be ; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.ò.

21. *Amendment of Schedule-I.*ð In Schedule I of the principal Act,ï ï

Award

This is to dispose of an application filed by the applicant/ petitioner under section 20(2) of the Minium Wages Act, 1948 for recovery of the less amount of the wages. The facts of the case as collected from the records/documents placed on the file are that the applicant/petitioner has been engaged in replacement of his mother as sweeper in the office of respondent No. 5 since November, 2006 and is continuing as such without any break and hesitation. The applicant further claims that he is not being paid minium wages but very meager amount of Rs. 500/- P. M. and not according to the wages fixed by the Government for the category of the ósweeperô. Therefore, the petitioner/applicant has approached this court and sought intervention and has pleaded that direction be given to the respondents that he be paid wages according to the rates of the minium wages fixed by the Government from time to time and has also prayed that the less amount of wages paid to him till date be recovered from the respondents. He further claimed that he is not working as a Part-Time Sweeper but is working on full-time basis as he attends office of respondent No. 5 daily from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. and renders help to the respondent

No. 5 in the disposal of day to day official work besides maintenance of official record/documents and attends Hon'ble Court at Sopore on behalf of respondent No. 5 where prosecution cases are filed and disposed of for the proper implementation of Labour Laws.

After due registration of the case, the respondents were summoned to appear and file their response and reply to the claim application of the applicant which they did. In their objections they have maintained that the applicant is working as a part-time sweeper in the office of the respondent No. 5 in replacement of his mother and is not working as a full-time employee. Therefore, cannot claim minimum wages fixed for the employment of sweeper. Further the respondents have claimed that the applicant has filed two service petitions under No. 2702/11 and 870/2017 before the Hon'ble High Court at Srinagar and therefore, cannot approach this Hon'ble Fourm in terms of section 11 of C. P. C. (Res-judicate) as the applicant is barred to approach this fourm for the same cause of action as pleaded before the Hon'ble High Court. Against this the petitioner in his rejoinder pleaded that he had approached the Hon'ble High Court at Srinagar for regularization of services on the post of sweeper or on any other class-IV post on the basis of his long continuation of serving the respondents department w. e. f. November, 2006 as the State Government has taken steps as a welfare measure to regularize thousands of daily rated workers/casual/seasonal/contractual labourers/workers. The Hon'ble High Court had already disposed of the above mentioned two writs with the direction to respondentsto regularize the services of the applicant but till date nothing has been done in this regard. Therefore, the applicant on the basis of the above facts has prayed that the objections of the respondents are not based on true and real facts and therefore, cannot be relied upon and therefore, be rejected and not considered. Since diversion of opinions appeared between the parties, the Hon'ble Court framed the following issues after consulting and considering the proposed issues filed by the both parties :-

1. Whether the claim application of the applicant is coverable under the law governing the Payment of Minimum Wages Act, 1948 ? O. P. P.

2. Whether the applicant is working as a sweeper in the office of the respondent No. 5 since 2006 ? O. P. P.

3. Whether the employment of sweeper is coverable under Scheduled Emploment ? O. P. P.

4. Whether the applicant is being paid very less than fixed by the Government for such category of employment as applicant is engaged ? O. P. P.

5. If yes, whether the applicant is entitled to wages a per the rate fixed by the Government ? O. P. P.

6. Whether the applicant has concealed/withheld the fact from the Hon'ble Court that he has approached Hon'ble High Court twice through the medium of writ petition and if proved in affirmative, what is its effect ? O. P. P.

7. Relief.

The applicant was directed to produce his witness in support of his claim application and the issues framed above which he did. In all four witnesses including the applicant himself were examined on affidavit. All of the witnesses namely Mohammad Afzal Teeli, Mohammad Iqbal Dar, Jan Mohammad Sheikh and the applicant himself have deposited that they know the applicant as they always saw the applicant working in the office of respondent No. 5 whenever they happened to vist the said office in connection with the registration/renewal of their shop licenses or any other work related to their shops/establishment or their employees. We find the applicant working in the said office. Moreover the applicant helps the official of respondent No. 5 the Labour Inspector in the day to day official work in the maintenance of the official record/registers, etc., otherwise the respondent No. 5 the Labour Inspector cannot do any work without the assistance and help of the applicant as there is no other official/officer posted or working in the office of the respondent No. 5. It is only the applicant and the respondent No. 5 who maintained the official work of the office of respondent No. 5 whether inside the office or outside the office in the field. The applicant in his statement has deposed that a huge and large area of jurisidiction is covered under the J&K shops and Establishment Act, 1966 falling within the territory of the Sopore Sub-District and the respondent No. 5 being a Labour Inspector has to visit the field to check the violation under the said Act and ensure proper implementation of the said Act and to ensure the proper welfare measures to the employees engaged by the shopkeepers or establishment holders beside the major check of the menace of Child Labour. Thus al this is not possible without assistance and help of additional hand. Since there is no other employee working or posted in the above said office of respondent No. 5, the help and assistance of the applicant is taken at each and every step of the disposal of the official work. In this connection the applicant attends the office for full day time and not as a part-time but not being paid wages according to the rates fixed by the Government by the respondents and is denied the due legitimate wages. It is a shame on the part of the respondent to pay him Rs. 500/- P. M. as wages in such hard days when an unskilled labourer earns Rs. 500/- per day as his wages. So a grave injustice is being meted out with him. It is very unfortunate that he has not been paid this meager amount of Rs. 500/- P. M. since 5-6 years.

Therefore, all the witnesses of the applicant in one voice have have prayed that the applicant be paid his due wages according to the law and shall be appreciated and encouraged for his full devotion and hard work for the better discourse of the services to the public. The applicant did not produce more witnesses and his witnesses were closed. The respondents did not appear and did not produce any evidence. Therefore, they were set on ex parte and their opportunity of producing any evidence was closed.

After completing of the due process of proceedings the applicant through counsel filed the arguments which formed part of the file. In their arguments the applicant has maintained that the respondents are the Government Department and are vested with the powers under sections 3, 4, 5 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 to fix/revise the minimum rates of wages to those class of employments who have been brought under the purview of the ósSchedule Employmentô as defined in section 2(g) of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948. In view of it, the employment of ñsweeping and cleaningò has already been brought under the purview of the ósScheduled Employmentô vide Notification No. S. O.-1573 (E) dated 03-11-2005 w. e. f. 7th November, 2005 at item No. 21 of the Secedule Part-I of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 and by the Government of the State of J&K, Srinagar. Hence the applicant is covered under the ósScheduled Employmentô and is therefore, entitled to claim the payment of his wages atleast at the rates fixed by the Government for the category of the employment he is performing in the office of the respondent No. 5. Besides section 12 of the Minimum Wages Act makes it mandatory and duty bound upon the employer to pay the wages to their employees at the rates fixed by the Government. Therefore, the respondents who are the employers of the applicant in terms of section 2(e) of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 are bound to pay the applicant the wages at the rates fixed by them for the category of sweeping/cleaning. The learned counsel has further maintained that the Constitution of India also gurantees the payment of the due wages to the person engaged for carrying out his duties and rendering services to the public at the behest of the employer. In all the learned counsel has pleaded that grave injustice is being meted out to the applicant by denying him his due and legitimate payment of his dues by those employers (respondent) who are themselves responsible to check and ensure the implementation of the payment of Minimum Wages to the poor class of labourers/workers/employees.

The purusal of the record/documents on the file reveals that the applicant-petitioner has been engaged as ósweeperô in the office of the respondent No. 5 since November,2006 after his mother had left serving the office of respondent No. 5 as a sweeper. The applicant had further claimed that he is not only working as a sweeper in the office of the respondent No. 5 the Labour Inspector C/o Office of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Baramulla but as a full-time employee as he renders assisntanance and help to the Labourr Inspector in his day to day disposal of the official work and maintenance of the record/file/registers and official documents. The applicant has in detail submitted the kind of his assistance and help to the respondent No. 5, both in his claim application, rejoinder and in his arguments also. The court therefore is fully satisfied with his submissions that the Labour Inspector-respondent No. 5, cannot all alone perform his duty both in or outside his office without any assistance from the additional hand as the main function of the Inspector is to visit the field and ensure full implementation of the J&K Shops Act, 1966 and Child Labour Act and Minimum Wages Act, 1948. Therefore, assistance from the applicant to the respondent No. 5 is genuine and up to the mark. Therefore, the claim of the respondents that the applicant is a part-time sweeper is not correct but in fact the applicant is devotedly working as a full-time employee in the office of the respondent No. 5 though on paper the applicant is engaged as a part-time sweeper. The applicant undoubtedly spends full day in the office of respondents and renders help to the respondent No. 5 in the performance of his day to day official work. Moreover the applicant also attends the court of Judicial Magistrate, Sopore on behalf of the respondents where a good number of prosecution cases are filed for violation of the law. Thus the applicant also attends the most essential service for and on behalf of the respondents, but is not being honoured and paid wages for his sincere and dedicated service. The work and conduct of the applicant has also been verified and attested vide No. 260/11 dated 31-03-2011 by issuance of a certificate in favour of the applicant by the concerned Inspector placed in the file. Since the employment of sweeping and cleaning is covered under the term of óScheduled Employmentô in the terms of above mentioned notification both by the Ministry of Labour, Government of India and State Government, the applicant cannot be deprived to claim wages according to the rates fixed for the category of the sweeping. Further the respondents are the Government Department and are themselves empowered under sections 3, 4, 5 of the Minimum Wages Act to fix/revise the minimum rates of wages to the óScheduled Employmentô including the employment of sweeping and ensure the implementation of rates of minimum wages as fixed by it to the declared scheduled employment. So the respondens cannot escape to implement its own notification whereby the minimum rates of wages are/ were fixed from time to time and the applicant cannot be denied and deprived with the benefit to claim the payment of his wages at the minimum rates of wages fixed for the category of employment he is performing. It is a binding and mandatory obligation upon the respondents in terms of section 12 of the Minimum Wages Act to pay to the applicant the minimum wages fixed by it for sweeping category irrespective of the fact whether he is a part-time sweeper or full-time, because the law does not restrict it. The only condition to claim under Minimum Wages Act, 1948 is whether the employment of the applicant is covered under the ñScheduled Employmentò. The applicant is indeed covered under the defination of ñScheduled Employmentò in pursuance of the notification as mentioned above. Hence can claim the wages to be paid as fixed/revised by the Government from time to time. Therefore, an award is passed in favour of the applicant after all the issues as framed above are decided in favour of the applicant witha direction to the respondent to pay the applicant his wages at the rates fixed for the category of sweeping. In this regard the applicant has submitted a detailed statement of the amounts which he has not been paid and deprived till date, the court feels that grave injustice has been done with the applicant right from beginning till date by those who claim themselves as the guarantors and protectors of the rights of the poor labourers/workers/employees. Therefore, the court passes the award of an amount of Rs. 10,23,600/- as less payment of wages in favour of the applicant and against the respondents who are directed to deposit the decreed amount of Rs. 10,23,600/- with this court within a period of one month failing which the same shall be recovered as per law. The file after due completion be consigned to records under rules.

A copy of this Award be sent to the Government of Jammu and Kashmir through its Commissioner/Secretary, Labour Department for information and publication in the Government Gazette.
